

Aboriginal Family Playgroups

Noah's Inclusion Services hosts free weekly playgroups for Aboriginal children and their families in the Shoalhaven and Illawarra.

The playgroups are funded by NSW Department of Education's First Steps Strategy designed with and for Aboriginal Families to support them in their Boori's early years of growth and development, especially the development of communication skills and pre-literacy skills, and to nurture parents and carers in their role as their child's first teacher.

Playgroups are held regularly during school terms as follows:

Mondays 9.30am-11.30am - Young Yarns Playgroup, Albion Park Rail

Mondays 9.30am-11.30am - Bilima Booris, Sanctuary Point

Mondays 9.30am-11.30am - Gugunyal Bagan, Ulladulla

Tuesdays 9.30am-11.30am - Gubidja Wurrangalali Gooyoong, Nowra
(with Cullunghutti)

Thursdays 10.00am-12.00pm - Burri Burri, Gerringong

Thursdays 10.30am-12.30pm - Gudjaga Waradba (with Waminda)
